

THE PHILOSOPHICAL
ENVIRONMENT

PHILOSOPHY IN THE WILD 2024

COLTON POINT
STATE PARK
PA, USA

JULY 26-28

Thesis: Where we do philosophy matters.

Keynote: Ryan Johnson (Elon University)

Organizers: Maja Sidzińska (Penn), Mike Gadowski (Coastal Carolina), Arthur Obst (Princeton)

<https://bit.ly/3La527w>

PROGRAM

Friday, July 26

10:00am	Check in
1:00pm	Lunch
3:15pm	Welcome
3:30pm	Renee Holman (Texas A&M), "Leopold and Callicott: Bad Marriage, Quick Divorce"
4:00pm	Paul Forrester (Yale), "Ethics of Carbon Offsetting and Professional Conferences"
4:30pm	Levi Tenen (Kettering), "The Imperative of Indigenous Co-Management"
5:00pm	Q&A, panel discussion
7:00pm	Dinner

Saturday, July 27

8:00am	Breakfast
9:00am	Tyler Re (Penn), "Is It Simple To Be a Marxist in (Academic) Philosophy?"
9:30am	Wade Roberts (Juniata), "Against Neoliberal Education: Byung Chul-Han, Hannah Arendt and the Useless Utility of Thinking"
10:00am	Q&A, panel discussion
11:00am	Justin Simpson (UT Rio Grande), "Moving Forward by Going Back: A Diffractive Analysis of Song and Flower in Aztec Philosophy"
11:30am	Suzanne McCullagh (Athabasca) & Elisabeth Paquette (Buffalo), "Contact Zones: Philosophical Encounters and Conversations"
12:00pm	Q&A, panel discussion
1:30pm	Lunch, recreation
5:00pm	Keynote: Ryan Johnson (Elon U), "Where Does Philosophy Happen?"
7:00pm	Dinner

Sunday, July 28

8:00am	Breakfast
9:30am	Corinne Persinger (Texas A&M), "Pragmatism for Animal Ethics"
10:00am	Brooke Rudow (U Central Florida), "Wildness Within: Teaching with Animals in the Philosophical Classroom"
10:30am	Q&A, panel discussion
12:00pm	Lunch
2:00pm	Check out